

Position Description

Position Title: O’Gara CFW Program and Research Assistant	Creation Date: October 12, 2021
Reports To Position: Associate General Secretary	Revision Date: January 2025
Status (% and hours per week): Contract: February 15, 2025 – February 15, 2026 (20% FTE, 7 hours a week)	Pers. Comm. Review Date:

Purpose:

The Commission on Faith and Witness (CFW) of The Canadian Council of Churches (the Council) provides a forum for member churches to (a) articulate the Christian faith they hold in common and to seek greater mutual understanding and witness; (b) identify and explore theological questions of mutual concern and share resources for dialogue and common understanding; (c) collaborate with other Commissions and agencies of the Council in the exploration of mutual concerns and the expression of theological understanding; and (d) reflect theologically on the direction of ecumenism.

The focus of the O’Gara CFW Program and Research Assistant’s role will be on providing support to the Associate General Secretary, including:

- Program support: for example, assistance in convening meetings of the Commission on Faith and Witness, keeping a faithful record of the deliberations, and following up on action items
- Research on the current program priorities of the Commission on Faith and Witness, as determined by the Commission
- Resource publication and promotion
- Event support and promotion

Context:

The Council has made a commitment to join and invite youth and young adult engagement in the life of the Council. Consequently, this position is designed to contribute practically to the work of the Council, mentor new faith and witness leaders, and join with youth and young adults in their efforts to reflect, lead, and live out their Christian faith.

Structure and Reporting Relationships:

This position reports to the Associate General Secretary. During any absence of the Associate General Secretary, this position will report to the General Secretary.
